25X1 Comments.

(1) During August 1952, several firing practices by artillery units of the 9th Mech Div from Weimar were held in the Jueterbog area. [redacted] confirms the 9th Mech Div from Cottbus until 28 August 1952. 25X1

(2) All previous information indicates that artillery units of the 12th Mdz Tank Div went to Jueterbog for firing practices in two rail movements, i.e. the first movement between 23 and 28 August 1952 and the other between 28 August and 31 August 1952. [redacted] 25X1

(3) The troop train hauling an [redacted] unit from Jueterbog-Altes Lager to Cornouchen was probably identical with a similar train carrying trucks [redacted] from Cornouchen, which was also observed [redacted] at the Jueterbog railroad station [redacted] 25X1 25X1 25X1

[redacted] was observed at Cornouchen in early June 1952 with a shipment of military goods from Dessau; [redacted] belongs to an unidentified AA unit at Pirow airfield. The two units had probably been at the Jueterbog troop training grounds for firing practices.

25X1 (4) [redacted] The 82nd Mdz Div Tank Regt of the 6th Mdz Mech Div from Eberswalde until 28 August 1952. The light AA battery of the regiment had probably been at Jueterbog for firing practices.

(5) The AA train on 28 August 1952 was probably previously [redacted] 25X1

25X1 [redacted] at the Wolfrose railroad station. [redacted]
